NOTICE

Subject: Opening of Surrender/ Resignation Portal

In view of the representations being received from colleges the competent authority has approved the following:

1. In reference to the earlier notice No. U-12021/44/2019/55-MEC dated 24th June, 2020 uploaded on MCC website where it was mentioned that the seats of online reported candidates of Round-1 who do not report physically will be cancelled on last date of reporting, please note the following:

Surrender Portal has been opened for colleges to surrender the seats of candidates of Round-1 who took the admission in allotted college online, but have not reported in the allotted college till the last day of Reporting i.e 30th June, 2020 with Forfeiture of Security Deposit. Hence, colleges can surrender the seats of above mentioned candidates on intramcc portal till 05:00 PM of 30th June, 2020 so that the seats come back in system for allotment in further rounds.

2. Resignation portal will be activated for colleges to enter the resignation of candidates who got allotted seats in Round-1, participated in Round-2 but were not upgraded. The colleges can enter the resignation of candidates on intramcc portal who had sent their resignation within stipulated time i.e till 20th June, 2020 but were not entered online by the allotted college. The Security Deposit of such candidates will not be Forfeited.

Since the above procedures are to be conducted by the concerned colleges at their level, the MCC shall not be held liable for the same.
